

Also, we had a donation jar set up for Pam for people who wanted to make donations. We are so thankful to all those who made donations. We met a lot of caring and generous people who were very encouraging.

